A Century of Conflict in Indochina 1875-1975: The Politics & Personalities of War in Vietnam, Cambodia & Laos

Catalogue No. KCCIND

A Century of Conflict in Indochina 1875 – 1975. The Politics of War in Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos

Introduction

This collection focuses on the various military and political machinations on the Indochina peninsula from the beginning of France's colonial rule in the 1860's to the end of the Vietnam War in 1975, examining in depth the political struggles for nationalism in Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam – the former colonies and protectorates of France.

The material concentrates on the military conflicts that ensued on the peninsula after World War II when Ho Chi Minh inflicted serious defeats on the withdrawing French troops.

The role of the Geneva Conference of 1954 is examined as to the subsequent involvement by the major western powers in the region as Communism became the politics of choice for the newly independent states and a divided Vietnam.
