1931 – 1932

Introduction

On 7 July 1937, Chinese and Japanese troops (the latter present in Manchuria since 1932) confronted each other near the Marco Polo Bridge in the suburbs of Peking.

This clash was the prelude to a War, which would see the Japanese army occupy vast areas of China.

This conflict ended with Japan's surrender on Sept. 3, 1945.
