

1. APJOHN, LEWIS. Richard Cobden and the Free Traders. Walter Scott, Paternoster Row, London, 1886. Original green cloth. Gilt Spine dulled. Edges scuffed. Head & tail of spine bumped. Text clean and bright, binding very strong. A near fine copy. 298pp. 8vo, b&w frontis., portrait of author.....An early biography of Cobden, the leader of the Free Trade movement in England, who occupied one of the most prominent positions in the arena of politics during more than a quarter of a century. €80.00 SOLD
2. BAIN, ALEXANDER. John Stuart Mill - A Criticism. With personal recollections. Longmans, Green & Co., London, 1882. Original cloth. Boards heavily sunned as is spine. Head & tail of spine bumped with edges scuffed. Damage to outer hinge at rear of book. Binding tight and strong. Text clean and bright. 201pp. Small octavo.....'In the present work I do not propose to give the complete biography of John Stuart Mill. My chief object is to examine fully his writings and character; in doing which, I have drawn freely upon my personal recollections of the second half of his life. By means of family documents, I have been able to add a few important particulars to his own account of his early years.' (From preface) €135.00 SOLD
3. COBBETT, WILLIAM. Cottage Economy. Containing relative to the brewing of Beer, making of Bread, keeping of Cows, Pigs, Bees, Ewes, Goats, Poultry, and Rabbits, and relative to other matters deemed useful in the conducting of the Affairs of a Labourer's Family; to which are added, Instructions relative to the selecting, the cutting and the bleaching of the Plants of English Grass and Grain, for the purpose of making Hats and Bonnets; and also Instructions for erecting and using Ice-houses, after the Virginian manner. William Cobbett, London, 1831. Card Boards. Rebound in original boards. Signatures are tight. Text clean and bright. A good copy. pp Small 8vo.....An out-and-out advocate of political Radicalism, Cobbett championed the causes of long suffering farm labourers in the early 19th Century. €345.00
4. HALDANE, R.B. Life of Adam Smith. Walter Scott, Paternoster Row, London, 1887. Original Navy Cloth. Edges rubbed, head & tail of spine bumped. Pages uncut. Text clean and bright. A very good copy. 161pp. 8vo....Early life of Smith while acknowledging the importance of "Wealth of Nations", recognizes his contributions beyond economics. Deals with Smith as "moralist" and in the context of modern politics. €140.00
5. HYNDMAN, H.M. The Economics Of Socialism. Being a series of seven lectures on Political Economy. The Twentieth Century Press, Limited, London, n.d. Third edition. Original red cloth. Boards stained and sunned. Spine heavily sunned with head & tail bumped. Corners rubbed. Slight foxing to endpapers. Binding tight, a very good copy. 257pp. 8vo, b&w frontis., portrait of author.....'The first six lectures in this book were delivered at the Central Hall of the Social-Democratic Federation in 1893 and again in 1894.....I now issue the lectures in their present form, in the hope that I shall thus furnish the rapidly-increasing number of students of sociology with a concise and readable statement of the main theories of the scientific school of political economy, founded by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels.' (From preface) €95.00 SOLD
6. JAMIESON, ROBERT. Political Economy for Business People. Effingham Wilson, London, Bell & Bradfute, Edinburgh & Marcus Ward & Co. m Belfast, 1880. Original Brown Boards. Boards scuffed, with corners and head & tail of spine bumped. Gilt spine sunned. A very good copy. 310pp. 8vo.....'It is to be expected that many incomplete and obscure statements have escaped from my pen, and even perhaps some inaccuracies, notwithstanding every care taken to avoid them. To those who may point out any such, I offer my thanks beforehand. Authorities have been quoted sparingly on account of the popular character of the work, as the aim was rather to give an intelligible statement than to supply a book of reference.' (From preface) €160.00 SOLD
7. JEVONS, W. STANLEY. Money and the Mechanism of Exchange. D. Appleton and Co., New York, 1897. Authorized edition. 1/2 leather with marbled boards. Edges scuffed and fraying. Head & tail of spine bumped and scuffed. Pages uncut. A clean fresh copy. Very good. 342pp. 8vo. 'In preparing this volume, I have attempted to write a descriptive essay on the past and present monetary systems of the world, the materials employed to make money, the regulations under which the coins are struck and issued, the natural laws which govern their circulation, the several modes in which they may be replaced by the use of paper documents, and finally, the method in which the use of money is immensely economized by the cheque and clearing system now being extended and perfected.' (From preface) €210.00

8. LEMERCIER, M. LE VICOMTE ANATOLE. Etudes sur les Associations Ouvrieres. Librairie Adrien le Clere et Cie, Paris, 1857. Original blue boards. Spine heavily sunned, head & tail lightly bumped. Edges rubbed. Binding tight and strong. Page ends marble dyed.. 276pp. 8vo.....'La Societe d'economie charitable avait decide qu'elle s'occuperait, pendant l'annee 1856, de la question du travail; dans la repartition de l'oeuvre commune, les associations ouvrieres m'etaient echues en partage; je fis donc un rapport verbal a la reunion, qui m'engage a le rediger par ecrit.' €145.00
9. MCCULLOCH, J.R. The Principles of Political Economy. With sketch of the rise and progress of the science. Essay on interest and value of money by John Locke. Alex Murray & Son, London, 1870. Original cloth. Boards dulled as with age. Spine heavily sunned, head & tail bumped. Edges rubbed slightly. Pages uncut. 360pp. 8vo.....'Though the article on Political Economy in the Supplement to the Encyclopaedia Britannica forms the ground-work of the present publication, it is, in most respects, an entirely new work. Volume includes a reprint of John Lockes seminal 1691 Work on Monetary Theory. 'Sir, These notions concerning coinage having, for the main, as you know, been put into writing, above twelve months since; as those other, concerning interest, a great deal above so many years; I put them now again into your hands, with a liberty (since you will have it so) to communicate them farther, as you please.' (From Locke's Preface) €170.00
10. MEDLEY, GEORGE W. Pamphlets. Presentation copy with portrait. In Memoriam by his wife M.L.M. Cassell, Petter, Galpin & Co., London, Paris, New York, 1899. 1/2 green calf. Edges rubbed. 5 raised bands on spine, lightly scuffed. Marble decorated boards and endpapers. Top edge gilt. Binding tight and strong. A fine copy. pp Small 8vo, b&w frontis., portrait of author, tipped in. Pamphlets include; The Reciprocity Craze; England under Free Trade; The House of Commons; The Trade Depression; Fair Trade Unmasked; The Triumph of Free Trade; The Fiscal Federation of the Empire; The German Bogey. Inscribed by M.L.M. €270.00 SOLD
11. MILL, JOHN STUART. Autobiography. Longmans, Green, Reader, and Dyer, London, 1874. Fourth edition. Original green cloth. Edges heavily bumped as are head & tail of spine. Boards scuffed and dulled. Spine sunned. Coloured endpapers. Text and binding, very good.. 325pp. 8vo. One of the most famous autobiographies ever. Mill records his education at the hands of his famous father, learning Greek at three, reading Plato at eight, and Aristotle at twelve. €15.00
12. MILL, JOHN STUART. Principles of Political Economy. Abridged with critical, bibliographical, and explanatory notes, and a sketch of the History of Political Economy by Laurence Laughlin. A text-book for colleges. D. Appleton & Co., New York, 1886. Original cloth. Boards scuffed slightly as with age. Edges rubbed, head & tail of spine bumped. Binding very strong, a near fine copy. 660pp. 8vo, numerous charts. An uncommon first edition of this classical attack by the scholar who refused to join the AEA because of rising Elyism and historicism.. €75.00
13. MILL, JOHN STUART. Principles of Political Economy. With some of Their Applications to Social Philosophy. Longmans, Green & Co., London, New York, 1892. People's Edition. Original Maroon Cloth. Corners fraying. Spine very slightly sunned with head & tail bumped. Slight damp-staining to top of front board and front endpapers. Coloured endpapers. Binding very tight and strong. A very good copy. 591pp. Small 8vo. "To many generations of students, Mill's Principles was the undisputed bible of economic doctrine. They represented the final synthesis of classical theory and of refinements introduced by post-Ricardian writers. They were comprehensive systematic, and with few exceptions, they presented their theorems without pugnacity which strengthened the impression of assurance and unquestioned authority". (Roll, History of Economic Thought p.353)....."The present edition is an exact transcript from the sixth, except that all extracts and most phrases in foreign languages have been translated into English, and a very small number of quotations, or parts of quotations, which appeared superfluous, have been struck out." €170.00

14. MUMMERY, A.F. & HOBSON, J.A. The Physiology of Industry. Being an exposure of certain fallacies in existing theories of economics. Scarce Hobson title. John Murray, Albemarle St., London, 1889. Original Green Boards. Corners rubbed with head & tail of spine bumped and fraying. Gilt spine sunned. Decorated endpapers. Hinges cracked inside front board. Binding tight and text clean. A good copy. 215pp. 8vo ...Hobson & Mummery state in the preface that 'the effective love of money is the root of all evil.' €175.00 SOLD
15. PRICE, L.L. Economic Science and Practice. Essays on various aspects of the relations of Economic Science to Practical Affairs. Methuen & Co., London, 1896. Original brown cloth. Edges and head & tail of spine bumped. Binding tight and strong. A very good copy. 325pp. 8vo.....'The following papers, which have been written at various times, and for different occasions, during the last years, on economic subjects - in which the author has been specially interested - are connected by certain characteristics. They deal generally with the relations of economic theory to proposals of practical economic reform.' (With preface) €125.00 SOLD
16. SAY, JEAN-BAPTISTE. A Treatise on Political Economy; or the Production, Distribution, and Consumption of Wealth. Translated from the fourth edition of the French by C.R. Prinsep, M.A. with notes by the translator. New American edition containing a translation of the introduction, and additional notes by Clement C. Biddle. J.B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, 1863. Rebound in modern cloth. New endpapers. Damp-staining to page edges particularly prelims. Text underlined in places. A clean fresh copy. 488pp. Octavo. "Inspired by Smith's Wealth of Nations, he wrote his "Treatise" which introduced Smithian ideas to France and other European countries. The famous Law of Markets (Say's Law) became widely accepted as a statement of the eternal ability of market forces to produce equilibrium of production and demand. His influence dominated officially-taught economics in France for most of the nineteenth century." It was Say, more than any other writer, who impressed upon political economy the character of a natural science. €290.00
17. SMART, WILLIAM. The Distribution of Income. Macmillan and Co., Limited, London, 1899. Original Navy Cloth. Boards stained, edges bumped. Hinges cracked in parts o/w near fine copy.. 341pp. 8vo.....'This book reflects a part of my own mental history. A man who takes up the systematic study of Economics only after a considerable apprenticeship to practical business life, has to spend some years not so much in acquiring knowledge as in revising his experiences and getting rid of misconceptions'. (From Preface). Smart was Adam Smith's Professor of Political Economy in the University of Glasgow. €125.00 SOLD
18. SMITH, ADAM. An Inquiry into the Nature and Causes of the Wealth of Nations. With an Introductory Essay and Notes by J. Shield Nicholson, M.A., Sc.D. T. Nelson and Sons, Paternoster Row; London, Edinburgh and New York, 1901. Original brown cloth. Damp-staining to front board. Edges rubbed with head & tail of spine bumped. Text underlined in parts. Binding very strong. A very good copy. 447pp. 8vo. A one volume edition of the Wealth of Nations, with an introductory essay and notes by the influential economist Joseph Shield Nicholson, Professor of Political Economy in the University of Edinburgh. "Just as the mathematician may still read with advantage the "Principia" of Sir Isaac Newton, so may the economist still profit by the "Wealth of Nations" of Adam Smith." (From preface) €130.00
19. SMITH, E. PESHINE. Manuel D'Economie Politique. Traduit de l'anglais par Camille Baquet. Guillaumin et Ce, Editeurs, 1854. Original blue boards. Boards scuffed and stained. Edges rubbed. Spine heavily sunned with head & tail bumped slightly. Page ends marble dyed. Binding very tight and strong. A very good copy. 348pp. 8vo. 'L'importance que l'economie politique a acquise depuis quelque temps en Europe, e particulierement en France, ou tant d'ecrivains eminents se sont efforce de mettre cette science a la portee de tous, m'a inspire le desir de mettre sous les yeux du public la traduction du nouvel ouvrage de M. Peshine Smith, professeur distingue d'economie politique dans un des colleges des Etats Unis.' (From preface) €170.00

- 20. SPEECHES OF RICHARD COBDEN, ESQ., M.P. Peace, Financial Reform, Colonial Reform, and other Subjects Delivered During 1849. Charles Gilpin, London, Blind-stamped cloth. Edges, head & tail of spine bumped. Damp-staining on back board. Gilt titled spine sunned slightly. Coloured endpapers. Binding very strong. A very good copy. 252pp. Small 8vo.....Self-made and largely self educated, his campaign for free trade in corn through the Anti-Corn Law League (founded 1838) made him the most famous advocate of "laissez-faire" policies. The Manchester base of the League led to the use of the phrase 'Manchester School' (coined by Disraeli) for free trade liberalism in politics and economic thought. €340.00 SOLD
- 21. VEBLEN, THORSTEIN. The Theory of the Leisure Class. An Economic Study in the Evolution of Institutions. The Macmillan Co., London, 1899. Green Cloth. Boards dulled as with age edges scuffed and fraying. Spine sunned with head & tail bumped. Cracked spine and loose covers, subject to repair. 400pp. 8vo.....This first book is the author's magnum opus and gave him prominence overnight. The treatise is essentially an analysis of the latent functions of 'conspicuous consumption' and 'conspicuous waste' as symbols of upper-class status. 'Veblen began here his long and provocative criticism of the business enterprise system which he conceived as price economy. With acid irony and polysyllabic learning, he attacked in this book the money habits of people with incomes above the subsistence level. His ideas were seminal and his influence is continuous' (Grolier American Hundred 100). €4,950.00
- 22. WALKER, FRANCIS A. Political Economy. American Science Series, Briefer Course. Macmillan & Co., Limited, London, 1892. Original brown cloth. Head & tail of spine bumped, with head fraying. Edges bumped. Hinges cracked at rear of book o/w a very good copy.. 415pp. 8vo.....'This work has been abridged from the third edition of my Manual of Political Economy, published in 1883. The object in view has been to present a text-book adapted to use in Colleges and Academies where but one Term is devoted to the study of Political Economy.' (From preface) €80.00 SOLD
- 23. WAYLAND, FRANCIS. The Elements of Political Economy. With revisions and additions by the editors of the educational course. W. Kent & Co., Paternoster Row, London, n.d. Blind stamped cloth. Edges of boards and spine sunned. Corners and head & tail of spine bumped. Binding tight and strong. A near fine copy. 270pp. 8vo. This was the most famous and popular American text of the 19th century, and the first American economics text to gain respectability in Europe. Wayland sought divine laws of economics, but with a sophisticated analysis that kept the book dominant for more than 50 years. €155.00 SOLD
- 24. WEBB, SIDNEY & BEATRICE. Industrial Democracy. Printed by the authors for the Trade Unionists of the United Kingdom. N.P, 1913. Original green cloth. Boards faded as with age. Head & tail of spine and edges bumped. Hinges cracked inside front board. Binding tight and strong. A very good copy. 929pp. 8vo.....'We have attempted in these volumes to give a scientific analysis of Trade Unionism in the United Kingdom. To this task we have devoted six years' investigation, in the course of which we have examined, inside and out, the constitution of practically every Trade Union organisation, together with the methods and regulations which it uses to attain its ends.' (From preface) €150.00

These books are priced in Euros.

Postage and package extra.

Please contact weborders@kennys.ie for further details.