Catalogue No: KADOH

Adolf Hitler: A study in dictatorship

Introduction

In the fifty years since his suicide and the ruins of Berlin, Adolf Hitler has been the subject of more study, speculation and biographies than any comparable figure of our time. He stands at the centre of a crucial historical debate over the nature of evil and moral responsibility in the Twentieth Century.

This comprehensive collection includes many of Hitlers own writings and speeches and a number of seminal accounts of his life and times. The material (some of it intersecting, some conflicting, some revisionist) addresses the enduring enigmas surrounding this demiurge of the Third Reich.
