Germany And Two World Wars – A Collection Of Rare And Antiquarian Volumes

Introduction

This catalogue includes over 700 fine rare, antiquarian and ephemera titles dealing with various aspects of World War I and II.

The material includes the 2 volumes of Viscount Grey of Fallodon's Memoirs, General Ludendorff's War Memories, Harold Nicolson's works on Diplomacy, the Vienna Conference and Hitler; a 1st Faber and Faber edition of Siegfried Sassoon's Memoirs Of An Infantry Officer and Stephen Spender's Citizen In War among other notable titles.

Also included is a particularly fine copy of L'Aéronotique Pendant La Guerre Mondiale 1914-1918, a richly illustrated introduction to tactical air flight; a material on army chaplains in the First World War; a translation of the French Yellow Book on German Aggression; The White Book on the Bonn Treaty and information on the construction of Pacific Naval Bases.

A number of multivolumed and complete sets augment this material, particularly the 6 volumes that complete the War Diaries of Sarah Gertrude Millin (scarce, fine and in original dust wrappers); J.F. Horrabin's Atlas-History Of The Second Great War in 10 volumes (original dust wrappers, complete with endpaper maps); a 1st edition of the 11 volume set British Documents On The Origins Of The War 1898-1914 (published in 1927 by His Majesty's Stationery Office); a selection of Confessional reports on the investigation into the Pearl Harbour attack; and a number of political pamphlets published by Victor Gollancz, authored anonymously by Cato, Scipio, Cassius, Cassandra, Celtius etc.

This collection also boasts material by the following noted authors: John Strachey, Vera Brittain, G.D.H. Cole, E.D. Morel, Oswald Spengler, Emil Reich, Fenner Brockway, Arthur Bryant, Basil Davidson, Lidell Hart, Somerset Maugham, F.O. Miksche, A.A. Milne, J.B. Priestley, Johannes Steel, Victoria Sackville West, R. Palme Dutt among others.
