A Survey of the Middle East: It's People, Culture and History

Introduction

This Collection provides an introductory history and analysis of the Middle East region.

Particular focus is on the regions evolving role in world affairs during the 20th Century when the economics of oil, religious fundamentalism and Nationalist movements all thrust the area into global prominence.

Key writings on the history and unique culture of the Middle East by specialists in the fields are included.

Subject Index

- Imperialism and Middle East Countries
