British Boating and Sailing

Introduction

Devotees of the traditional sports of boating, rowing and sailing will find this collection portrays in words and pictures the rich array of places, settings and personalities to be found in this sport.

The collection describes the complex pattern of local Club development in schools, towns and universities and shows the fascination regattas and heads have for rowers and spectators alike.

From the gathering of the fashionable élite at Henley to the sporting excitement of the Bumps on the Cam, from the university challenge of the boat race to the charm of racing on the dee or the Avon, the catalogue celebrates the history of these ever popular sports throughout Britain .
